The defendant's supervision was initially assigned to U.S. Probation Officer Annette Morris with the District of Maryland. On December 23, 2013, the defendant's supervision was transferred to U.S. Probation Officer Sharon Jacobs. According to Officer Jacobs, the defendant relocated to Los Angeles, California, in January 2014, without permission and has failed to submit his monthly reports. Furthermore, the defendant has failed to attend a substance abuse program. To his benefit, the defendant paid his $250.00 fine, $25.00 processing fee and $10.00 special assessment on October 26, 2013. A recent record check was also negative for any new law violations.

VIOLATIONS: The following violations are submitted for the Court's consideration.

SPECIAL CONDITION: FAILURE TO SATISFACTORILY PARTICIPATE IN A SUBSTANCE ABUSE TREATMENT PROGRAM.

In October 2013, the defendant was referred to the Virginia Alcohol Safety Action Program (VASAP) for substance abuse treatment. The defendant was scheduled to begin the VASAP program in December 2013, and was also required to attend an outpatient substance abuse program with the Kolmac Clinic in Silver Spring, Maryland. The defendant failed to complete both of these programs.

On January 2, 2014, a letter was sent to the defendant instructing him to contact U.S. Probation Officer Sharon Jacobs with the District of Maryland. On April 8, 2014, Officer Jacobs spoke to the defendant via his cellular telephone and was advised by the defendant that he had relocated to Los Angeles, California, in January 2014. Officer Jacobs advised the defendant of his conditions of supervision, and the defendant stated that prior to leaving Maryland, he contacted the U.S. Probation Office in Maryland to report that he was planning to move to California. Mr. Rowan could not remember with whom he spoke and admitted that he did not leave any forwarding information. Officer Jacobs instructed the defendant to return to Maryland and the defendant stated he plans to return in June 2014, but has not finalized the arrangements.
